Class Details and Schedule

Ballet: A classical dance form emphasizing grace and precision along with formalized steps and gestures set in intricate, flowing patterns to create expression through movement. This class will perform 1 routine in the annual Recital and have 1 costume. Costume fee will be $70 and include all accessories.

Tap: A dance form in which the rhythm or rhythmical variation is audibly tapped out by the dancer. Vocabulary is emphasized. This class will perform 1 routine in the annual Recital and wear a black leotard. Accessory fee will be $25.

Jazz: A dance form with its own vocabulary that combines techniques of classical ballet and modern dance with the current forms of popular dance. This class will perform 1 routine in the annual Recital and wear a black leotard and black leggings. Accessory fee will be $25.

Musical Theater: Describes dancing that is rooted in the diverse history of Broadway musicals. Acting and musical interpretation are elements dancers rely on when performing this style. This class will perform 1 routine in the annual Recital and wear a black leotard and black leggings. Accessory fee will be $25.

Hip Hop: is a unique and exciting style of street dance. It is a fusion dance genre that incorporates elements of popping, locking, breaking, and other hip hop specific elements. This class will perform 1 routine in the annual Recital and wear a black leotard and black leggings. Accessory fee will be $25.

Modern: A free and expressive style of dancing that began as a reaction to classical ballet. It employs a special technique for developing the use of the entire body and implements abstract ideas. This class will perform 1 routine in the annual Recital and wear a black leotard and black leggings. Accessory fee will be $25.

Contemporary: A style of expressive dance that combines elements of modern, jazz, lyrical and classical ballet. Dancers strive to connect the mind and the body through fluid dance movements. This class will perform 1 routine in the annual Recital and wear a black leotard. Accessory fee will be $25.
